

“A Struggle for Home: The Crimean Tatars,” depicts the rich and often tragic history of the Crimean Tatar people, from ancient times to the aftermath of the 2014 Russian annexation of the Crimean Peninsula.

Sunday 3 April 2016 at 3 pm

Kozak Bar, Ukrainian Community Centre

64-66 Orsmond Street, Hindmarsh

Tickets (at the door): $10

Full bar facilities & snacks or dinner will be available. For further information contact George Sobol on 0404 515 085 or Volodymyr Fedojuk on 048 817 921

The producer, Christina Paschyn, is an international multimedia journalist based in Doha, Qatar. She is also a lecturer of journalism at Northwestern University in Qatar. Her work has appeared on Euronews, Time.com, Time Magazine, the Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting, Al-Fanar Media, and Harper's Bazaar Arabia.